Promote My Permit Pass in five minutes.

Everything an affiliate, publisher or marketing partner needs on one page: what the product is, who buys it, what to say, where to send people and what to avoid.

What it is

DMV permit test prep for all 50 states + D.C. Exam-style questions, mock exams graded to the state's passing score, road scenes that play after you answer, and an AI tutor in five languages. Web, iPhone, iPad and Android.

Who buys it

Teens (15–18) studying for a learner's permit, parents buying for them, adult first-time drivers, new residents switching states, and Spanish / Chinese / Korean / Russian speakers.

Why it sells

10 free questions a day with no sign-up, then $4.99 a week (cancel anytime) or $24.99 once for 8 weeks — and a Pass Guarantee (complete the program, fail the official test, get back what you paid — terms apply).

THREE THINGS TO SAY

Don't imagine it. See it.
Situational questions come with a top-down road scene that plays after you answer, so the rule is something you watch, not just memorize.

$4.99 a week. Cancel anytime.
Weekly is $4.99 a week until you cancel. Or the 8-Week Pass: $24.99 once, never renews.

Study in your language.
Every question, explanation and tutor reply in English, Spanish, Chinese, Korean and Russian.
